(c) the steps taken to improve the general health of citizens including containing the spread of diseases?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI PANABAKA LAKSHMI): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Question does not arise.

(c) The Government has undertaken several programmes to improve general health of the citizens including containing the spread of diseases. The National Rural Health Mission (NRHM) launched in April 2005 has been operationalised all over the country with special focus on 18 States. The main aim of NRHM is to provide accessible, affordable, accountable, effective and reliable primary health care facilities, especially, to the poor and vulnerable sections of the population. The Government is also having specific programmes for common diseases including the Revised National Tuberculosis Control Programme (RNTCP), National Vector Borne Disease Control Programme (NVBDCP), National Leprosy Eradication Programme (NLEP), National Blindness Control Programme (NBCP) etc. These programmes along with the Phase II of Reproductive and Child Health Programme (RCh II) have now been brought under the common umbrella of the NRHM.
